Dear Friends,

Holy Week is almost upon us and, as stated in many places, we will be experiencing this Holy Week and celebrating this Easter in a very different way than we ever have before. Although these days are filled with uncertainty and discomfort, we can find ways to remain in community. The following are the times and methods I have scheduled for us to walk through this Holy Week and Easter together. Most of the services and gatherings can be accessed by phone if you do not have internet connection. If you have a smart phone, they are available to you. If you have questions on how to access, please contact me and we will walk through it. If you do not have a smart phone, please reach out to someone who has a computer and see if they can connect you through their devices and telephones. It may seem like a lot of work; however, I do not want anyone to be left out of our community commemorations of this special time in our spiritual life.

Enclosed in this packet is a booklet of ways to worship at home through Holy Week. Use it to supplement our scheduled online worship opportunities.

Afterward, let's get together once more on Zoom for prayers for our prayer list and "Coffee Hour" to celebrate Christ's resurrection together at 11:15 (or there about). Access Zoom at Topic: Prayers and Coffee Hour

There will be further communication coming about the Wednesday morning Eucharist and the Maundy Thursday Vigil in a separate e-mail.

I ask you to remember that while we are apart, the work of the church continues. Please remember to continue to send in your financial support as circumstances allow.

Holding you all in my heart and in prayer as we worship in this new way and praying for the day we come together physically again and joyfully celebrate Christ's resurrection and being once again in one another's presence.

Peace, blessings and health,

M. Rose Anne+
